Minor Requirements

The Minor in Legal Studies requires five courses totaling 15 credits of courses level 300 and above in a specific distribution with a grade of C or higher. Appropriate courses may be taken at NJIT or at Rutgers. If selected wisely, three of the courses may also be counted toward fulfillment of the General University Requirements in Humanities and Social Sciences. Courses taken in fulfillment of the Legal Studies minor may not also be used to fulfill requirements for the History major.

Each student must have his or her program approved by the legal studies advisor in the history department at NJIT or by an advisor designated by the legal studies advisor. You may keep track of your progress toward the history minor by using the charts below. For additional information and course suggestions, please see:
