Minor Requirements

The history minor requires five courses totaling 15 credits, four of which must be upper level (300 or above) history courses with a grade of C or higher. Courses may include Rutgers history offerings bearing the 510 or 512 prefixes or NJIT history offerings bearing the HIST prefix. Three of the courses may also be counted toward fulfillment of the General University Requirements in Humanities and Social Sciences. Architecture Majors receive a one-course credit for Arch 381-382 (History of Architecture III-IV).

Each student must have his or her program approved by the head of the history department at NJIT or by an advisor designated by the head of the department. You may keep track of your progress toward the history minor by using the chart below.
